

Press Release 2

15/10/2016

JEE (Advanced) 2017 will be held on Sunday, May 21, 2017. The examination will consist of two papers of three hour duration each. Top two lakh and twenty thousand candidates from JEE (Main) 2017 will be eligible to appear in JEE (Advanced) 2017. JEE (Advanced) will also be held in the following foreign countries: Bangladesh, Ethiopia, Nepal, Singapore, Sri Lanka and UAE. The website for JEE (Advanced) 2017 has been launched already. For details refer to www.jeeadv.ac.in.

Organizing Chairman

JEE (Advanced) 2017

IIT Madras, Chennai